- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

DEFENDANT: ZACHARY JAMES KRUSE
CASE NUMBER: CR 11-2019-1-LRR

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION
(Reimposed from Original Sentence)

1. The defendant must participate in and successfully complete a program of testing and treatment for substance abuse.
2. The defendant is prohibited from the use of alcohol and is prohibited from entering bars, taverns, or other establishments whose primary source of income is derived from the sale of alcohol.
3. The defendant must participate in a mental health evaluation and/or treatment program. The defendant must take all medications prescribed to the defendant by a licensed psychiatrist or physician.
4. The defendant shall submit to a search of the defendant's person, residence, adjacent structures, office or vehicle, conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation or a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall ware any other residents that the residence or vehicle may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. This condition may be invoked with or without the assistance of law enforcement, including the U.S. Marshals Service.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION
(Imposed from Revocation Sentence)

5. Immediately following release from imprisonment, you must reside in a Residential Reentry Center for a period of up to 120 days. This placement will be in the community corrections component with work release privileges. While a resident of the Residential Reentry Center, you must abide by all rules and regulations of the facility. You must report to the Residential Reentry Center at a time and date to be determined by the Bureau of Prisons, the Residential Reentry Center, and the United States Probation Office.
6. If not employed at a regular lawful occupation, as deemed appropriate by the United States Probation Office, you must participate in employment workshops and report, as directed, to the United States Probation Office to provide verification of daily job search results or other employment related activities. In the event you fail to secure employment, participate in the employment workshops or provide verification of daily job search results, you may be required to perform up to 20 hours of community service per week until employed.

Upon a finding of a violation of supervision, I understand the Court may: (1) revoke supervision; (2) extend the term of supervision; and/or (3) modify the condition(s) of supervision.

These conditions have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions and have been provided a copy of them.
